1881.

PREFACE.

Regarding the pieces catalogued in the following pages, but few remarks are necessary, and we have only to say that the Roman Coins were submitted to the judgment of most competent authority; and intending purchasers are therefore assured that they may rely implicitly on the correctness of the descriptions, and that every coin catalogued as genuine is positively guaranteed. Among those catalogued in lots of 15 or upward are to be found many fine and desirable pieces, quite worthy of separate description, but such an arrangement would have enlarged the catalogue to an undesirable extent.

Particular attention is requested to the rare lot of Jewish Coins, as well as to the Early and Modern French and Revolutionary pieces, (many of the latter strictly uncirculated) and to some fine examples among the Gold, and Foreign Silver. As to condition, we can only say that we have endeavored to state it fairly, and trust that no glaring errors will appear.

Respectfully,

GEO. W. COGAN & CO.,

344 Fulton St., Brooklyn.

This beautiful and appropriate medal was designed by Franklin, and is undoubtedly one of the most important in the American series; and in view of the approaching anniversary to be held at Yorktown in October of the present year, and the contemplated erection of a Monument, commemorative of the surrender of Cornwallis, which was brought about by the alliance with France; it becomes at this time of special interest, and it is difficult to conceive of a more fitting design for one side of the base than that furnished by the reverse of this medal.
